

FEEL ME

Can You

(recitative)

I'm just a woman
I'm not made of stone
And now I face this all alone...

(song)

Can you hear me?
My voice in the wind-
Can you hear how I've tried to get through to you to hold onto,
and convince from within?

Can you see me?
My eyes in the clouds-
Can you see how I dream, how pictures of you
pread on my floor,
are my comfort somehow?

Does it matter what comes after?
What I say is not to flatter, but to reach across some void,
to bridge something far-
Not forget-
Keep alive-
Not accept we're apart
-----

Can you feel me?
My tears on your hands-
Can you feel how I've cried through mornings alone thinking of you,
how this girl had her man?

Can you know me?
My fears since you've gone-
Do you remember me, think of me all day long Still know your part
To the words of our songs?

Yes it matters what comes after!
Now that everything has changed,

You've been taken from me
Crossed bridges so far-
Don't forget-
Please endure-
Don't accept we're apart
-----

I'm just a woman
I'm not made of stone,
And now I face this all alone--
Can you hear me?
Can you see me?
Can you know me?
Can you feel me?

DARLA RECITATIVE

I know you can hear me
Not the words I'm speaking from another room, or another time
But what I'm feeling comes through as if a scent on the wind, in a language its own
My message unfolds
Like songs of morning doves
Who knows their words?
Yet we know what they are feeling and so then their meaning

I know you can feel me
Not the silk I am wearing with printed flowers in broom, or these soft lips
But the girl, the real me comes through, nevertheless as a kiss, though I'm away
It's always been that way:
What we've been through's the same
I know what you'll say before its spoken
Each others the bond, a repair for what's broken

I am always your song
A voice in our chord
A melody born in your key, some sweet placed harmony
One sustains as one rests
We'll sing always together
Without words voice duets
Music like love, and soft calls of dove's songs without words
This songs our's forever

I know you don't hear these words – but I know that you can feel them
I know your eyes are not upon me now – but I know you can still see me
I know I'll always will hear your song - sung before, or tomorrow

So if your taken away, our love's still the frame holding harp strings I will play in your absence, I'll sound a love song we've written,
I'll never forget
This song has been learned – our timeless duet

AN ANGEL INSIDE EVRY MAN

Darla:

I've known him
I've seen through his eyes
Seen how he wins
Each time he tries
And no one can speak to one thing that he lacks
But I know he won't be back.

I had him
Almost shared his life
Some greatest gift
He promised to give
But I know now what I didn't back then
No I won't see him again

So soon gone the promise of his confidence
We-re caught in something bigger than us both
And if he's lost after been found Tides will rush
My memories drown
This is not how we planned
I cannot face to lose him now

My better half He's always been Oh please come back
YOU'RE PART OF ME

David:

I believe
In things I can't see Luck, alchemy-
That my troubles will be gone
Let them pile on, conspire change my tack
But I know I will be back

And if I'm taken
They'll still never harm
Cast forth your swords
Brandish your arms
I'm coming back as her own angel then

Yes I will see her again

They're coming now they're closing in, they do surround
I will believe and hold my ground, I will not fail
Cast forth your swords, brandish your arms
Troubles be gone!
I'm going home
Not how I planned
But there's an angel inside every man

I'm coming back
Not how I planned
I'm coming back
YOU'RE PART OF ME

CHORUS:
Darla/David:
Better angels are within
Darla:
Send an angel from within
David
Please an angel be within Darla/David:
There's an angel inside every man

Darla:
Oh please come back
David:
Not how I planned
I'm coming back
Darla/David:
YOU'RE PART OF ME

Darla:
Just maybe
He can open my eyes
If yesterday's locked
With a tight lid on top
Please help me not to forget everything
Be my wreath, my diamond ring

CHORUS:
David:
Better angels are within
Darla:
Send an angel from within
David
Please an angel be within

Darla/David:
There's an angel inside every man

Darla:
Oh please come back

David:
Not how I planned
I'm coming back

Darla:
Oh please come back

Darla/David:
